INTRODUCING YOUR TALK DISCUSSION LEADER Humanities Kansas

Below is a script you may follow to introduce your discussion leader. You are welcome to change it to best suit your needs—but remember to give Humanities Kansas credit for supporting the event.

Welcome to the [YOUR ORGANIZATION]. I am [YOUR NAME].

Our TALK event is brought to us by Humanities Kansas, an independent nonprofit spearheading a movement of ideas to empower the people of Kansas to strengthen their communities and our democracy. Please take a moment to turn off any cell phones before we begin our program.

William Clyde Brown is professor emeritus of English and Humanities at Kansas Wesleyan University. He earned his Ph.D. in literature and religion from the University of Chicago. Bill has published articles, poems, and translations in professional journals, and is the recipient of a number of fellowships and awards. A faculty member at Kansas Wesleyan between 1976 and 2006, Bill directed the Language Camp for children learning French, German, Spanish, or Japanese. He continues to write and to lecture and has made presentations at libraries throughout Kansas as part of the HK TALK book discussion program since its inception in the early 1980s.

Please welcome William Clyde Brown.
