Welcome to the [YOUR ORGANIZATION]. I am [YOUR NAME].

Our TALK event is brought to us by Humanities Kansas, an independent nonprofit spearheading a movement of ideas to empower the people of Kansas to strengthen their communities and our democracy. Please take a moment to turn off any cell phones before we begin our program.

Michaeline Chance-Reay* teaches courses in Women's Studies and Education at Kansas State University. She received her Ph.D. in Humanities Education and an M.S.W. in Social Work from Ohio State University. In 1998, her research resulted in an exhibition at the Riley County Historical Museum and an accompanying book, Land Grant Ladies: Kansas State University Presidential Wives. Her current research deals with the Harvey Girls, waitresses along the route of the Santa Fe Railroad, and historic sites on the K-State campus, especially those related to women. Mickey serves on the HK Speakers Bureau and has been leading TALK discussions since 1999.
