John Brown: Martyr or Madman

Citations

Instructions: Please feel free to take this page with you at the conclusion of the event.

Episode One: The Myth of John Brown In Kansas

Stephen Vincent Benét

David C. Doten
Doten, S. Oswatamie Graphic News, 16 May 1935.

Frederick Douglass

John Brown, Jr.

John Brown
Territorial Kansas Online. http://territorialkansasonline.org

Episode Two: The Pottawatomie Massacre

Mahala Doyle

James Townsley

Louisa Wilkinson

John Harris

Episode Three: Reaction to the Killings

John Brown
James Hanway

Morton Bourne
http://www.archive.org/details/reportofspecialc00unitrich

Axalla Hoole
http://www.kshs.org/publicat/khq/1934/34_1_hoole.htm

James Townsley

Episode Four: John Brown Remembered Today
Lawrence Weekly Journal, 1900
http://www.continuinged.ku.edu/kt/session3/discussion.html

St. Louis Globe-Democrat, 1880
“John Brown in Missouri.” St. Louis Globe-Democrat. 28 December 1880.

Terry Farr

Tony Horwitz

David S. Reynolds

Michael Tomasky
http://www.guardian.co.uk/commentisfree/michaeltomasky/2009/dec/02/john-brown-civial-war

Stephen Vincent Benét

John Brown: Martyr or Madman is part of the Shared Stories of the Civil War Reader’s Theater project, a partnership between the Freedom’s Frontier National Heritage Area and the Kansas Humanities Council.

For More Information
Freedom Frontier National Heritage Area
Kansas Humanities Council
www.freedomsfrontier.org
www.kansashumanities.org