

INTRODUCING YOUR FACILITATOR FOR THE DECLARATION CONVERSATION

Below is a script you may follow to introduce your facilitator. You are welcome to change it to best suit your needs—but remember to give Humanities Kansas credit for supporting the event.

Welcome to the [YOUR ORGANIZATION]. I am [YOUR NAME].

We are pleased to welcome Travis Lamb to lead today's "Declaration Conversation."

Our "Declaration Conversation" event is brought to us by Humanities Kansas, an independent nonprofit leading a movement of ideas to empower the people of Kansas to strengthen their communities and our democracy. Additional support is provided by the State of Kansas through the Kansas Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts and the United Methodist Health Ministry Fund.

Please take a moment to turn off your cell phones so that we may all enjoy the program. As we begin, let's remember that the information presented, as well as what we share and discuss, is of value and of interest. We will respect one another even if we have differing points of views. Now that we're in agreement, let's get started!

Travis is always excited to offer any of the Dole Institute's dynamic education programs such as in-person tours and workshops, virtual classes, and classroom outreach to K-12 schools, scout troops, families, and other community groups.

With over 20 years of experience in education, administration, and law, he has been recognized for excellence in civics and humanities education by organizations including National and Kansas History Day, Kids Voting, and the Bill of Rights Institute.

He holds a B.A. in English Literature from the University of North Texas and a J.D. from Washburn School of Law. Outside of work, Travis enjoys time with friends and family and exploring museums, historic sites, and libraries in Kansas and across the U.S.

Please welcome Travis Lamb.
