

INTRODUCING YOUR TALK DISCUSSION LEADER

Humanities Kansas

Please use to welcome your discussion leader along with highlights from bio –

Our TALK event is brought to us by Humanities Kansas, an independent nonprofit spearheading a movement of ideas to empower the people of Kansas to strengthen their communities and our democracy. Please take a moment to turn off any cell phones before we begin our program.

For publicity and introduction, a biographical sketch of your discussion leader –

Marilyn E. Klaus is a lecturer with Religious Studies and African and African American Studies at KU. She received her M.A. in Religious Studies from the University of Kansas and M.Div. from Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries. Her areas of expertise include women's studies, comparative religions, Islam and Muslim women's autobiographies. Marilyn joined the HK TALK program as a discussion leader in 2008.

Marilyn E. Klaus
8848 Hirning Rd
Lenexa KS 66220-2536
913/859-9283 (h)
mklaus@kc.rr.com