KANSAS

ANNUAL REPORT FY2024

DEAR FRIENDS

Thank you. The good news found in this Annual Report is because of your support of Humanities Kansas (HK). The humanities continue to thrive and grow in Kansas — new exhibitions, compelling history presentations, book discussions, and other community-centered events brought thousands of Kansans together. It was the movement of ideas in motion.

Throughout the year, enthusiastic project directors across Kansas saw local needs and leaned into HK resources. Humanities practitioners and cultural leaders drew connections between past, present, and future. And event participants did it all — hosted and attended events, went online to engage in Big Ideas, flocked to Salina to hear the U.S. poet laureate, and gathered for conversations over books, Kansas history, poetry, and more. The results are local and impressive.

Stories remain at the heart of this work. Since our founding as an independent nonprofit in 1972, HK has relied on stories — stories of Kansas, our nation, and our world — to spark conversations that bring people together and strengthen our communities and our democracy.

Ad astra!

Julie L. Mulvihill
Executive Director

Brad Allen
Chair, Board of Directors

P.S.— An extra thank you to the staff and board of directors who guide HK every step of the way.

MISSION

Humanities Kansas connects Kansans with stories, ideas, and each other to strengthen our communities.
