

INTRODUCING YOUR TALK DISCUSSION LEADER

Humanities Kansas

Please use to welcome your discussion leader along with highlights from bio –

Our TALK event is brought to us by Humanities Kansas, an independent nonprofit spearheading a movement of ideas to empower the people of Kansas to strengthen their communities and our democracy. Please take a moment to turn off any cell phones before we begin our program.

For publicity and introduction, a biographical sketch of your discussion leader –

Jim Hoy received his Ph.D. in medieval English literature from the University of Missouri-Columbia and is a professor of English and the Director of the Center for Great Plains Studies at Emporia State University. He is an authority on the folklife of ranching, a topic on which he has lectured throughout the world. Jim's publications include 12 books and over 100 articles, and he is the coauthor of Plains Folk, a syndicated newspaper column. Jim is a charter member of the HK Speakers Bureau, serving since 1985, and has been leading TALK discussions since 1986.
